Course overview:

Expressive arts therapy (ExAT) is a body-mind-spirit health intervention that fosters holistic therapeutic outcome integrating various arts application, for example visual art, music, drama, dance & movement, and creative writing, in a supportive environment. ExAT is a person-centered approach psychotherapy, aims to provide an opportunity for non-verbal emotions expression and communication across service users from socially and culturally diverse populations.

In accordance with the college founding aspiration, “Learning, innovation and benefitting humankind,” this course provides students with opportunities to care and serve the people in the society with diverse needs and background through the learning and applications of core value, attitude and practical skills of arts facilitation from the foundation of Expressive Arts Therapy, as well as promoting social inclusion in the society by planning and participating in expressive arts community program. As a service-learning course, students will engage in experiential learning that they can critically learn and apply concepts and theories of non-judgmental arts facilitation and community connection developed from Expressive Arts Therapy in a real-world environment. To prepare students to care for others they will first learn how to care for themselves through developing loving and kindness, empathy, mindfulness, and respect for diversity in the participation of Expressive Arts Therapy experiential workshops. As guided by the course instructor, students are expected to design and implement service projects by themselves or in association with non-government organizations, Service Learnings, or volunteer groups as host organizations. The course concludes with a post-service review that students will share and reflect their service-learning experience to re-examine their own connection to the society using arts and to develop an enhanced awareness of the compact relationship between mental wellbeing and arts participation.

Academic honesty and plagiarism:

Attention is drawn to University policy and regulations on honesty in academic work, and to the disciplinary guidelines and procedures applicable to breaches of such policy and regulations. Details may be found at <http://www.cuhk.edu.hk/policy/academichonesty/>.

With each assignment, students will be required to submit a signed declaration that they are aware of these policies, regulations, guidelines and procedures.

- In the case of group projects, all members of the group should be asked to sign the declaration, each of whom is responsible and liable to disciplinary actions, irrespective of whether he/she has signed the declaration and whether he/she has contributed, directly or indirectly, to the problematic contents.
- For assignments in the form of a computer-generated document that is principally text-based and submitted via VeriGuide, the statement, in the form of a receipt, will be issued by the system upon students' uploading of the soft copy of the assignment.
- Students are fully aware that their work may be investigated by AI content detection software to determine originality.

Assignments without the properly signed declaration will not be graded by teachers. Only the final version of the assignment should be submitted via VeriGuide.

The submission of a piece of work, or a part of a piece of work, for more than one purpose (e.g. to satisfy the requirements in two different courses) without declaration to this effect shall be regarded as having committed undeclared multiple submissions. It is common and acceptable to reuse a turn of phrase or a sentence or two from one's own work; but wholesale reuse is problematic. In any case, agreement from the course teacher(s) concerned should be obtained prior to the submission of the piece of work.

The copyright of the teaching materials, including lecture notes, assignments and examination questions, etc., produced by staff members/ teachers of The Chinese University of Hong Kong (CUHK) belongs to CUHK. Students may download the teaching materials produced by the staff members/ teachers from the Learning Management Systems, e.g. Blackboard, adopted by CUHK for their own educational use, but shall not distribute/ share/ copy the materials to a third-party without seeking prior permission from the staff members/ teachers concerned.

Guideline about plagiarism

Any assignment (i.e., project, essay, or paper) that shows evidence of plagiarism will be marked down severely. In simple terms, plagiarism is copying passages and/or ideas from other sources without referencing those sources. Moreover, when you report someone else's ideas/findings you must put it in your own words and not merely copy full sentences or parts of sentences from the source article. It is your responsibility as a scholar-in-training to cite the ideas and work of others correctly.

In all cases of plagiarism, the student's name will be recorded in a central database maintained by the general office. If a student is referred for plagiarism in more than one course, or more than one instance in the same course, the student's case will be forwarded to the university administration for follow-up action. If the charge is established, the penalty guidelines are as follows:

Plagiarism	Minimum Penalties
First offence	i) One demerit; ii) A mark of zero for that component of the course; and iii) Completion of relevant training in academic honesty

Second of further offence (and a first offence that is serious as decided by the disciplinary committee concerned / the FTP Committee)	i) Two demerit (of which one will remain in the University's record permanently and one is reviewable) and; ii) A failure grade for the course concerned

Detecting plagiarism

- Each student must upload a soft copy of the completed assignment to the plagiarism detection engine VeriGuide, at <https://veriguide1.cse.cuhk.edu.hk/cuhk/>
- The system will issue a receipt which also contains a declaration of honesty, which is the same as that in http://www.cuhk.edu.hk/policy/academichonesty/Eng_hm_files_\(2013-14\)/p10.htm/p10.htm)
- The declaration should be signed on the pdf, attached with the soft copy of the assignment upon submission.
- Only the final version of the assignment should be submitted via VeriGuide.

(Students are reminded that due to the rapid developments of generative AI tools, some citation formats may be updated regularly.)

- An example of including texts generated by an AI tool in their work

"The following text was generated by an AI tool / language model (ChatGPT):"
[Insert the text generated by ChatGPT here.]

- iv. An example of including texts generated by an AI tool and the prompts that were used to elicit the text from the AI tool

"[The prompt], as generated by an AI language model (ChatGPT):"
[Insert the text generated by ChatGPT in response to the prompt.]

Students are reminded to learn and use the AI tools responsibly and ethically and be aware of the limitations.

Students are reminded to clarify with the course teacher and obtain permission if necessary when in doubt.

Feedback for evaluation:

Student can give their feedback on the course at the mid-term and final evaluation by completing the questionnaire.

Teacher also welcomes student feedback by e-mail and face-to-face discussion.
