

Summer in San Francisco

Classes and Cable Cars and Campus Life. Get a bit of everything this summer. See the famous San Francisco neighborhoods, and dive into the diverse Bay Area community. Finish two courses in any available subject and gain an official San Francisco State University transcript. Summer in San Francisco is a fun and functional opportunity for you to enrich your academic career and your worldview.

Program Highlights

Earn University Credit: Choose from over 600 courses to be offered in person and online in synchronous, bichronous and asynchronous formats and complete the program to receive the official SF State transcript. Two courses equal six SF State credits. Transferring credits depends on the recipient university.

Choose from a Broad List of Courses: Choose Cross-Cultural Innovation and Creativity in Business and Management, Contemporary Latina/o Literature, Ethics in Criminal Justice, Digital Cinematography, or hundreds more classes.

Explore San Francisco While You Are Learning: Explore the city while taking the optional and free 1 unit course, A U 110: Living in San Francisco*. Visit historic neighborhoods, hike through iconic landscapes and check out historic landmarks such as the Golden Gate Bridge, Alcatraz Embarcadero and Nob Hill. See new people, new places and discover new personal potential.

Included for all programs five weeks or longer*

Experience the Entrepreneurial Spirit: Visit San Francisco neighborhoods for their unique culture, arts businesses and more. See firsthand how innovation and entrepreneurship influence all aspects of life in San Francisco.
