Are you curious what you can do to support sustainability? Are you eager to be a changemaker in this global public discourse? If yes, here's your chance: AIIESEC in CUHK is holding a Youth SDG Forum (YSF) which consists of three 1-day events that gives you a chance to gain more knowledge about social issues and hidden problems of sustainability.

Three tracks to choose

- Food Sustainability (SDG 2)

Time: 12:30-17:30 Jun 8 (Wed)

Session 1: Learn about problems in food sustainability through a debate simulation

Session 2: Sharing by the Founder of Treehouse on a plant-based movement in Hong Kong

Session 3: Vegetarian Meal Cooking Tutorial by Treehouse

- Mental Health (SDG 3)

Time: 12:30-17:30 Jun 9 (Thu)

Session 1: Exercise on peer support and destigmatising mental health struggles

Session 2: Guest panel discussion with experts from MindHK, Mentalok and Prof. Freedom Leung

Session 3: Aroma Crystal Crafting Workshop

- Business Sustainability (SDG 12)

Time: 10:00-18:30 Jun 10 (Fri)

Session 1: Guest sharing on climate action and business sustainability

Session 2: Site visit to A.S. Watson and start-up companies with sustainable production chains

Session 3: Sustainable business solution competition

Join any day and learn more about hidden social problems. You will realize that apparent social problems are just a tip of the iceberg.
