

[Referral] Presented by Shall We Talk at M+, free Yayoi Kusama exhibition tickets are given out for local tertiary students at M+!

Have something so bothering recently? Wanna find someone to talk to but cannot find a proper one? Why not go to an exhibition on renowned artist Yayoi Kusama in M+ and take part in a series of soothing art therapy workshops and talks there? After the visit, you may have another perspective on the challenges ahead.

“M+ Shall we Talk” activities include:

- ★ Complimentary tickets to Special Exhibition ‘Yayoi Kusama: 1945 to Now’ and Guided Tours
- ★ Expressive Art Therapy Experiential Workshop: We Are All Polka Dots
- ★ Expressive Art Therapy Experiential Workshop: My Heart with Many Emotions
- ★ Public Talk: The Power of Art to Connect People and Support Mental Wellbeing

Complimentary tickets are available first-come, first-served from 17 March to 14 May 2023. Eligible full-time students of a local tertiary institution (including universities and higher education institutions) may redeem tickets at the Ground Floor Information Desk during office hours of M+ by presenting a valid student card. Pre-registration is not required. Eligible students may register for other activities on the M+ website

<https://www.mplus.org.hk/en/events/shall-we-talk-at-mplus/> or go to <https://www.instagram.com/p/Cpw-gAHLeZ6/> to check it out. All activities have a quota and are available on a first-come-first-served basis.