

Shaw College Talent Awards 2020/21

Introduction

The Chinese University of Hong Kong has a unique tradition of college systems which it is proud of. Throughout the past decades, the colleges have indeed played an important role in providing a congenial learning environment as well as quality non-formal education and pastoral care.

Shaw College believes that apart from having eagerness to pursue academic excellence, students must also be versatile in other aspects should he/she want to excel and stay competitive. It is observed that some special skills or talents of students are usually mastered or nurtured during their secondary school days. When students are admitted to the University, the College would like to recognize these talents and provide opportunities for them to show to their fellow students.

Number and Value of Awards

There will be 5 awards in recognition of the above-mentioned. The amount of each scholarship is HK$3,000.
